A SAMPLE OF HIS THOROUGH-NESS IN DOING HIS WORK. When The Evening World began its the same persistent spirit that kept him at night school year after year, he rode in Westcott cabs and verified account for much of his success in other things. ther things.

There was an interesting shuffling of the cards when the Tammany organi-zation lined up candidates for the municipal election—candidates who were to face the Fusion ticket headed by the late John Purroy Mitchel. Instead of being nominated to succeed himself as Aldermanic President. Dowling was pitted against Marcus M. Marks for the Manhattan Borough Presidency and Alfred E, Smith, who had made a record for the party as Democratic floor leader in Albany, was entered in the race for Aldermanic President against former Fire Commissioner Robert Adamson. Another stokes of fals for the Bronx ther stroke of fale for the Bronx Alderman, for Smith, after but one year as head of the board, moves off higher honors in Albany. Maybe this was luck.

The charter of the City of New York provides that when the Mayor is beyond the corporate jurisdiction his place shall temporarily filled by the President of the Board of Aldermen. If it should happen that both the Mayor and the Aldermanic President are absent, the mantic of authority falls upon the shoulders of the Vice President.
